DIRECTOR, DIVISION OF SCIENCE POLICY AND CAPACITY BUILDING

Post Number : SC 370

Grade : D-1

Parent Sector : Natural Sciences Sector (SC)

Duty Station: Paris

Job Family: Natural Sciences

Type of contract : Fixed Term

Duration of contract : 2 years

Recruitment open to : Internal and external candidates

Application Deadline (Midnight Paris Time) : 13-MAY-2022

UNESCO Core Values: Commitment to the Organization, Integrity, Respect for Diversity, Professionalism

OVERVIEW OF THE FUNCTIONS OF THE POST

The Division for Science Policy and Capacity Building includes three sections covering:

- Science, Technology and Innovation Policy.
- Basic Sciences, Research Innovation and Engineering.
- Local and Indigenous Knowledge.

The Division aims to support Member States in harnessing science, technology, and innovation (STI) and other knowledge systems for sustainable development at a national, regional and global level towards the implementation of Agenda 2030. A special focus is given to UNESCO's two global priorities, Africa and Gender, to youth and the increasing use of ICTs.

The Division coordinates the implementation of the programmes for Local and Indigenous Knowledge Systems (LINKS) and the International Basic Sciences Programme (IBSP). For capacity development in STI, engineering and science education, it ensures a close cooperation with The World Academy of Sciences (UNESCO-TWAS), the International Centre for Theoretical Physics (ICTP-UNESCO Category 1 Centre), other UNESCO-affiliated centres, UNESCO Chairs and institutions such as CERN and Sesame. The Division is responsible for the implementation of the UNESCO Recommendation on Open Science with multi-stakeholders and Member States.

The Division is responsible for, and manages, international days and awards pertinent to the Division, funded by both public and private sector, including the World Science Forum.

Under the authority and direct supervision of the Assistant Director-General of the Natural Sciences Sector, the incumbent will be responsible for the management of the Division's human and financial resources, administration and operations, in line with the Organization's policies and procedures. S/he will lead the Sector's efforts in establishing and maintaining effective relations with partners in STI inside and outside of the United Nations System; building and entertaining fundraising strategies and productive partnerships with donors; s/he will be responsible for the planning and coordination of programmes and plans of action. S/he will provide immediate supervision to the Division's three sections' Chiefs and ensure intellectual, strategic and operational leadership in the development and execution of the programme activities of the Division towards the implementation of Agenda 2030 and the Sustainable Development Goals relevant to the Division's main programmes.

In particular, the incumbent will:

- Plan, coordinate and monitor UNESCO's programmes by strengthening interdisciplinary cooperation and promoting participatory governance of STI systems at national, regional and global level.
- Provide leadership in forging key strategic partnerships both within UNESCO (TWAS and ICTP) and with outside partners and ensure efficient communication with UNESCO field offices, UNESCO-affiliated centres and chairs.
- Provide strategic guidance and follow up on recent evaluations on the World Science Report, the International Basic Sciences Programme and TWAS.
- Provide leadership in the implementation of the UNESCO Recommendation on Open Science.
- Be responsible for developing partnerships, establishing relations and maintaining liaison with actual and potential donors in the framework of the UNESCO Resource Mobilization Strategy. S/he will mobilize funds for the Sector's programme and projects.
- Manage and guide a team of multicultural staff by creating a positive work environment and giving incentives for commitment and action to promote UNESCO ideals, goals and targets. Direct, allocate and provide accountability for the management of the staff of the Division and the budget allocated to the implementation of specific programmes and activities.
