Post Number : CI 062

Grade : P-3

Parent Sector : Communication and Information Sector (CI)

Duty Station: Paris

Job Family: Communication and Information

Type of contract : Fixed Term

Duration of contract : 2 years with possibility of renewal

Recruitment open to : Internal and external candidates

Application Deadline (Midnight Paris Time) : 15-SEP-2022

UNESCO Core Values: Commitment to the Organization, Integrity, Respect for Diversity, Professionalism

OVERVIEW OF THE FUNCTIONS OF THE POST

The Communication and Information Sector's mission is to promote freedom of expression, media development and media literate societies, and to build knowledge societies through fostering universal access to information, innovation for sustainable development and the preservation of documentary heritage. (The role of this vacant position does not include responsibility for UNESCO's wider external communications, which is managed by the Division for Communications and Public Engagement.)

Under the overall authority of the Assistant Director-General, Communication and Information (ADG/CI), and the direct supervision of the Chief of Section, the incumbent is responsible for conceiving, implementing, and monitoring Regular Programme and extra-budgetary projects, including transversal actions, in the domain of media in crisis preparedness and response.

The incumbent works within the frameworks of UNESCO's Medium-Term Strategy (C/4), the approved Programme and Budget (C/5), and according to global development plans such as the 2030 Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs).

In this context, the incumbent will be expected to perform the following tasks:

Programme and Project Work:

- Implement, monitor, evaluate and report on Regular Programme activities as well as extra-budgetary projects and programmes, assuming one or more thematic responsibilities. Achieve, and help field offices achieve, C/5 targets in the assigned domains. Monitor implementation rates and reporting deadlines. Ensure results are aligned to performance indicators.

Advice and Knowledge Management:

- Ensure technical backstopping for activities and projects in the field of media in crisis preparedness and response. Produce tools, resources and policy documents. Recommend and contribute to the expansion of a knowledge base in this area, propose approaches, develop strategies, and answer to Member States' needs.

Networking and Partnerships:

- Liaise with colleagues within the Sector and across UNESCO. Conduct global events. Conceive and coordinate social campaigns held at international level that advocate a concept or value. Broaden partnerships and networks with media professionals and relevant partners.

Resource Mobilization:

- Contribute to resource mobilization; develop project funding requests and partnership agreements and prepare submissions. Increase fund-raising. Identify interest in supporting media in crisis preparedness and response, through bilateral funding sources, private sector, in-kind contributions, high network individuals and other. Obtain and prepare application requirements, identify fund-raising trends, opportunities and risks, and maintain mutually beneficial relations with donors.

Administrative Support:

- Draft briefings, news items, articles, social media material, reports, replies to deadlines, etc. Manage social media content and platforms, as well as track information online, including data on webcasting, live streaming connections, social media channels (downloads, hits, video and audio plays, unique page views, etc.).
