UNESCO Core Values: Commitment to the Organization, Integrity, Respect for Diversity, Professionalism

OVERVIEW OF THE FUNCTIONS OF THE POST
Under the overall authority of the Assistant Director-General for the Natural Sciences Sector (ADG/SC) and the direct supervision from the Chief of Section for the Small Island Developing States (SIDS), the incumbent, in close collaboration with relevant colleagues from all five UNESCO programme sectors in Headquarters and in Field Offices, shall play a key role in the development, implementation and coordination of the SIDS Accelerated Modalities of Action (SAMOA) Pathway, within the overarching framework of the Natural Sciences Sector programme, with particular attention to the need for novel approaches to on-the-ground practice that take into account the unique context and specific needs of SIDS.

The mission of the Section is to ensure a house-wide coordination on SIDS issues, and as such operationalize UNESCO actions to capitalize on existing/potential synergies to develop timely responses with regards to this Priority Group. The incumbent works within the frameworks of UNESCO’s Medium-
Term Strategy (C/4), the approved Programme and Budget (C/5), the UNESCO SIDS Plan of Action and the Operational Strategy for SIDS.

More specifically, the incumbent will perform the following tasks:

- Contribute to the development, coordination and implementation of the SIDS programme and related relevant projects, proposing new and innovative approaches, in addition to participating in international events and other undertakings throughout the Natural Sciences Sector in Member States that contribute to the fulfilment of the SAMOA Pathway.
- Participate in the preparation and delivery of training and capacity-building activities designed specifically for SIDS.
- Play an active role in the coordination, development and follow-up of the house-wide implementation of the UNESCO SIDS Action Plan. Ensure the mobilization and coordination of UNESCO's contribution to the international SIDS review processes, as well as the implementation of the SAMOA Pathway.
- Contribute to the mobilization of intersectoral collaboration around this theme via relevant mechanisms, while also contributing as team member to other relevant substantive themes for SIDS (e.g. climate change, natural disasters, science policy, coastal management, youth, etc.).
- Coordinate a network of colleagues engaged in SIDS-related activities across the Organization and ensure their contribution to regular house-wide reporting form, and maintain an active intersectoral UNESCO SIDS website, periodic publications on UNESCO action for SIDS, as well as to provide information for the submission to UNESCO Governing bodies and relevant United Nations bodies.
- Mobilize extrabudgetary funding for the implementation of projects, activities and events of relevance to the Section's SIDS SC programmes and priorities. Meet with donors to report on project implementation, find solutions for implementation challenges and solicit continuing or expanded support.
