OVERVIEW OF THE FUNCTIONS OF THE POST

Under the overall authority of the Director-General, the Chief of Staff contributes to efficient execution of the Director-General’s mandate. In particular, the incumbent will be responsible for promoting the visibility and relevance of UNESCO’s programmes and activities. To that effect, the incumbent will lead and coordinate the activities of all cabinet members in coordination with the Deputy Director-General, the Assistant Directors-General and all other members of the Senior Management Team.

In performing his/her duties, the incumbent will:

- Advise the Director-General on strategic issues.
- Develop and maintain close working relations with the Member States.
- Support the Office of the Director-General in overseeing and ensuring strategic coordination, coherence and integrated information, analysis and advice on UNESCO’s programmes and activities including in resource mobilization opportunities.
- Develop and maintain close working relations with senior officials of the Programme Sectors, Programme Support Sectors and the Corporate Services; contribute to the formulation of overall strategies, policies, programme of work and related processes.
- Represent the Director-General on assigned issues, at meetings, working groups, task forces etc.; provide expert strategic advice to the Director-General to facilitate decision-making and programme planning and implementation.
- Serve as the Organization’s interface on general programmatic matters and establish collaboration and partnerships with key officials at all levels inside and outside the Organization; seek and explore resource mobilization opportunities for relevant programmatic and thematic areas.

For further information on the specific programmes mentioned above, candidates may consult UNESCO’s website, at https://www.unesco.org/en, and/or the following documents: 41 C/4 (UNESCO’s Medium-Term Strategy for 2022-2029) and 41 C/5 (UNESCO’s Approved Programme and Budget for 2022-2025).
