OVERVIEW OF THE FUNCTIONS OF THE POST

Under the direct supervision of the Assistant Director-General of the Sector for Administration and Management (ADG/ADM), the Director of the Bureau of Human Resources Management (DIR/HRM), is responsible for providing strategic leadership and advice on the full range of human resources matters and for leading the conception and the implementation of the Human Resource Strategy for 2023-2027. Providing vision and strategies for the creation and maintenance of a dynamic workforce, the Director plays a primary role for ensuring UNESCO’s continuing capacity to deliver on its mandate. The Director acts as driver for change, leading and supporting the Organization’s reform initiatives, particularly pertaining to improving human resources management, and visionary manager of a team of human resources professionals. Motivating and providing an empowered environment for innovation and high-quality service, the Director ensures the provision of a comprehensive and integrated service which positions the Organization to optimally develop and deploy its human assets. The Director promotes a keen appreciation by management and staff of the critical importance of human resources management as central to the overall performance of the Organization. The Director strives for continuous improvement of HR management and is the visionary leader for the team of HR professionals.
The Director shall be responsible for:

- Direct the delivery of a talent management framework from workforce planning through recruitment, learning and development, and performance management and other human resources management services ensuring integration and synergy for effectiveness and efficiency; while ensuring that diversity targets can be met;
- Drive change and reform initiatives ensuring that HRM serves as an enabler and trusted partner for organizational change, and ensure effective implementation of the Human Resource Strategy;
- Ensure the provision of critical business intelligence to senior management on overall workforce trends and emerging issues to position the Organization to proactively anticipate, plan and meet workforce needs as these arise;
- Advocate and build awareness within UNESCO of the strategic importance of human resources management to the performance of the Organization. Embracing the nurturing and guiding of the development of staff including providing meaningful options addressing work/life balance issues, achieving gender equity and the leveraging of diversity as a comparative advantage;
- Support the evolution of a modern and dynamic international civil service through active contribution within the United Nations common system on human resources reform;
- Empower a peer community of human resources specialists to excel in programme delivery in the service of the Organization;
- Represent the Director-General in joint staff-management meetings as well as in the various United Nations and fora including the International Civil Service Commission (ICSC), the HR Network and, as appropriate, the High-Level Committee on Management (HLCM).
