The Minister of Education, Culture and Human Resources
Port Louis
(Republic of Mauritius)

Ref.: CL/4328

Subject: Director,
UNESCO International Institute for Education Planning (IIEP)
Paris, France
IEP 801 (D-2)

Sir/Madam,

The vacancy notice for the post of Director, UNESCO International Institute for Education Planning (IIEP) Paris, France has been published.

Please find enclosed herewith information about the post, as well as about the required qualifications, experience and competencies.

As you know, the Secretariat accords great importance to geographical distribution and gender, especially at the senior level. In order to achieve a more balanced geographical distribution, as well as an equitable representation of women, it is essential to encourage appropriate and qualified candidates to apply.

Candidates who wish to be considered for this post shall apply online, via the dedicated UNESCO website, Careers, as soon as possible and before the closing date, and ensure that their applications are well received in the system. Candidates will receive an automatic acknowledgement of receipt by email confirming the registration of their applications.

All applications must be correctly submitted by 30 October 2020 at the latest. For any queries, an email may be sent to recruitment@unesco.org. Only applications received at this address within the stipulated deadline can be considered to ensure equitable treatment of all applications received.

In order to have an outstanding candidate fill this post, I count on your cooperation to disseminate the vacancy announcement to nationals of your country using the channels you consider most appropriate.

Please accept, Sir/Madam, the assurances of my highest consideration.

Audrey Azoulay

OVERVIEW OF THE FUNCTIONS OF THE POST

UNESCO, as the lead agency for Sustainable Development Goal 4 on Quality Education is currently seeking a pro-active, visionary Director for the International Institute for Education Planning (IIEP). The right candidate will be a seasoned leader, able to foster trust through an inclusive approach and inspire others.

The International Institute for Educational Planning (IIEP) is an integral part of UNESCO’s Education Sector, operating with institutional autonomy under the guidance of its Governing Board. IIEP promotes an integrated approach to capacity development, including training, research, and technical assistance in the areas of policy formulation, and educational planning and management in relation to economic and social development. IIEP also promotes new concepts and methods of educational policy analysis, planning and management; and disseminates, by various means, existing knowledge and experience gained in this domain.

Guided by the Institute’s Governing Board and under the direct supervision of the Assistant Director-General for Education, the Director of IIEP provides intellectual leadership and strategic vision to IIEP’s programme and staff. The incumbent is responsible for the leadership of the Institute as well as for planning, implementing and reporting on its Programme and Budget. She will oversee the preparation of the Institute’s annual Draft Programme and Budget for submission to the Governing Board and, upon approval, draw up a detailed plan of activities, direct their implementation, and report on progress and results. Specifically, the incumbent shall:

- Provide intellectual, strategic and operational leadership in the pursuit of the Institute’s main goals. Develop activities to strengthen international cooperation in the area of educational development, technical assistance, educational policy formulation, education planning and management;
- Lead the planning, budgeting, execution and reporting of IIEP’s programme;
- In close cooperation with the appropriate units of the Secretariat at Headquarters and In the Field Offices, ensure that the IIEP contributes fully to the achievement of UNESCO’s objectives;
- Manage and design operational mechanisms and/or action plans, required to support and ensure efficiency and effectiveness of the Institute’s operations;
- Ensure close cooperation with UNESCO’s Education Sector and other Sectors, field offices. UNESCO’s specialized institutes, and services and units concerned;
- Oversee resource mobilization, budgets and risk analysis for the Institutes’ programmes;
- Advocate for IIEP externally and create and maintain strategic partnerships to help finance and implement its programme;
- Maintain a motivated and effective staff for the purpose of formulating, planning, implementing, monitoring and evaluating the programmes of the Institute.
